INFORMATION FOR THE SHAREHOLDERS

Shareholders' right to demand that specific matters be included in the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting

A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one twentieth part of the share capital of the Company may demand that certain issues be put on the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting. Such demand should be submitted to the Management Board of the Company not later than twenty-one days before the predetermined date of the Ordinary General Meeting, i.e. until September 9, 2011 at the latest.

The demand should include a justification or draft resolutions covered by the proposed agenda. All demands should be sent to the Company's address or submitted at the registered office of the Company before expiry of the deadline set above. A notice can also be submitted in electronic format to wza@abcdata.com.pl

A shareholder or shareholders intending to exercise the above specified notice should evidence the requisite volume of shares being at their possession as at the date of notice through attaching relevant certificates of deposit, and in addition the shareholders who are legal persons or partnerships must confirm their authority to act on behalf of the respective entity through enclosing a valid excerpt from the National Court Register. If the shareholder submits the notice through electronic data transmission, the documents mentioned above should be sent in PDF format.

If the shareholder's demand that certain particular matters be put on the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting conforms to legal requirements and the requirements arising from the present notice, the Management Board of the Company shall, not later than eighteen days before the predetermined date of the Ordinary General Meeting, i.e. until September 12, 2011

at the latest, communicate the changes to the agenda which were made upon demand of the shareholder(s) according to the procedure applicable to summoning the Ordinary General Meeting, including their publication at the Company's website at www.abcddata.com.pl

Shareholder's right to propose draft resolutions

A shareholder or shareholders of the Company representing at least one-twentieth part of the share capital may submit to the Company before the date of the Ordinary General Meeting (not later than on the last day preceding the date of the Ordinary General Meeting), in writing or through electronic data transmission to wza@abcddata.com.pl, draft resolutions concerning matters introduced to the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting or those which are scheduled for introduction to the agenda.

A shareholder or shareholders intending to exercise the above specified notice should evidence the requisite volume of shares being at their possession as at the date of notice through attaching relevant certificates of deposit, and in addition the shareholders who are legal persons or partnerships must confirm their authority to act on behalf of the respective entity through enclosing a valid excerpt from the National Court Register. If the shareholder submits the notice through electronic data transmission, the documents mentioned above should be sent in PDF format.

Every shareholder may submit draft resolutions during the Ordinary General Meeting concerning matters put on the agenda. Therefore, in order to avoid any disruption of the Ordinary General Meeting or obstruction in considering other shareholders' rights through exercise of the following rights by any shareholder, each shareholder intending to present a draft resolution during the session of the Ordinary General Meeting should notify the Chairperson of his or her intention to present such draft resolution not later than at the commencement of discussions by the Ordinary General Meeting of the item of the agenda concerning that resolution, through presentation of the draft resolution to the Chairperson.

Exercise of voting rights by proxy

A shareholder who is a natural person (individual) may participate in the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise their voting right personally or by proxy.

A shareholder who is not a natural person (individual) may participate in the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise their voting right by a person authorized to make binding statements on their behalf, or by proxy.

The relevant power of attorney should be executed in writing and attached to the minutes of the Ordinary General Meeting or given in electronic format, or otherwise shall be deemed null and void. The valid form of power of attorney is available as of the publication date of this notice on the corporate website of the Company, under Investor Relations (General Meetings of Shareholders).

A shareholder granting a power of attorney should give notice of granting such power of attorney in due advance, so that to allow verification of the shareholder's and the proxy's identity and authority in this respect.

The Company should be notified of any powers of attorney granted through electronic data transmission in a notice e-mailed to wza@abcddata.com.pl, taking all necessary steps to enable effective verification of validity of that power of attorney. The notice communicating the power of attorney should include exact identification of the proxy and the principal concerned (giving the full names or corporate names of non-individuals, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of both these persons). The notice of granting a power of attorney should also indicate the range of authority conferred thereby, i.e. the number of shares on the basis of which voting rights will be exercised, and the date and reference of the General Meeting of the Company whereat these rights will be exercised. The Company shall take appropriate action to identify the shareholder and the proxy in order to verify the validity of power of attorney given in electronic format. Such verification may specifically consist of responding with an inquiry in electronic format or by telephone to the shareholder and/or proxy concerned, to confirm that the power of attorney was granted and to acknowledge the scope of authority. The Company hereby communicates that unless any matter inquired about in the course of verification is duly answered, this shall be considered an indication of inability to verify whether the power of attorney was granted correctly and shall constitute a reason justifying refusal to accept the proxy's participation in the Ordinary General Meeting.

Scanned identification document(s) (including a valid excerpt from the National Court Register) of the shareholder or his representatives, and of the proxy, should be enclosed to a notice of giving power of attorney.

Shareholders will be allowed to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting upon presentation of identification documents. Proxies will be allowed to participate upon presentation of identification documents and a valid power of attorney in writing or in electronic format (in the latter case, the proxy should present a printed copy of the power of attorney previously e-mailed to the Company at wza@abcdata.com.pl in PDF format). In addition, representatives of bodies corporate or partnerships should also present a valid copy of the appropriate registry (which shall be submitted as the original or a copy certified for authenticity by a notary public, a legal counsel or an attorney) during execution of attendance list, and these excerpts should enumerate the persons authorized to represent the given bodies corporate or partnerships.

If any document is originally prepared in any other language than Polish, a sworn translation into Polish should be attached thereto accordingly.

In case of any doubts as to authenticity of the aforementioned documents, the Management Board of the Company hereby reserves the right to demand presentation of the original documents or their copies certified by a notary public, an attorney or a legal counsel, before commencement of the Ordinary General Meeting. Unless the original documents are presented, the given shareholder's proxy may be refused the right to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting.

All the rules enumerated above shall apply accordingly to notifying the Company in electronic format of revocation of power of attorney. Notice of granting or revoking a power of attorney in electronic format should be sent to the Company not later than at midday, on the working day immediately preceding the date of the Ordinary General Meeting.

A Management Board Member or an employee of the Company may act as proxies to shareholders at the Ordinary General Meeting.

If a Member of the Management Board of the Company, or a Member of the Supervisory Board, or a liquidator, or an employee or officer of the Company, or an employee of a subsidiary of ABC Data S.A. is nominated as a proxy for the Ordinary General Meeting, such power of attorney may authorize that person to act as a representative at one General Meeting only. The proxy must disclose to the shareholders any circumstances indicating existence or possible existence of a conflict of interests. The right to confer any further authority is expressly excluded. The proxy shall vote according to the instructions given to him by the shareholder.

The Company publishes forms of powers of attorney and voting instructions for proxies at www.abcddata.com.pl. If the proxy has been given instructions as to exercising his voting rights, the Company will not verify whether the proxy is exercising his voting right in accordance with the instructions received from the shareholder.

Each shareholder may demand that the list of shareholders entitled to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting be e-mailed to him free of charge, specifying the destination e-mail address for sending the list. The Company reserves the right to verify such shareholder's authority.

Those authorized to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting are requested to register, including submission of the documents enumerated in the present notice, at the place of the Ordinary General Meeting, thirty minutes before commencement of the Ordinary General Meeting.

The Company organizes voting with the use of electronic voting systems (electronic cards) and vote counting systems.

Access to documentation

The documentation to be presented to the Ordinary General Meeting, together with draft resolutions, will be published and available at the corporate website of the Company at www.abcddata.com.pl as of the date of convening the Ordinary General Meeting, according to Article 402³ § 1 of the Polish Code of Commercial Partnerships and Companies.

Any comments that the Management Board or the Supervisory Board may have in respect of the matters put on the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting, or the matters scheduled for introducing into the agenda before the predetermined date of the Ordinary General Meeting, will be made available on the corporate website of the Company at www.abcddata.com.pl immediately after receipt or execution.

General

The deadlines presented in the above information, as prescribed for the particular actions, are determined on the basis of applicable laws and are concerned with events occurring during the period from the date of convening the Ordinary General Meeting until completion of the Meeting. Therefore, if a deadline is set for certain actions to be undertaken by a shareholder and the Company is notified thereof, then such actions shall be undertaken as at the date when a given notice is received by the Company, before expiry of the deadline. Thus, a notice sent by the shareholder before expiry of the deadline set but received by the Company after the deadline shall be deemed an action undertaken by the shareholder after the deadline, and thus ineffective.

In addition, in their communications with the Company through means of electronic communication at wza@abcddata.com.pl, shareholders should take into consideration the fact that the Company (the persons in charge of handling the above e-mail address) will be reading any notices during the working hours of the Company, i.e. from 09:00 a.m. to 05:00 p.m. on workdays.
